TASTING NOTES

This Rhone-style blend showcases stunning aromatics of boysenberries, candied-violets, and mountain blueberries. Exquisitely smooth on the palate, the flavors are fruit-rich with suggestions of plum, dried cherries, and black tea. The tannins are subtle, and the finish is well-balanced with a delicate spice note on the back palate.

SUGGESTED FOOD PAIRING

This full-bodied, age-worthy wine is an excellent match for high fat, flavorful dishes like grilled or barbecued red meats, aged cheeses and earthy recipes that call for lentils, mushrooms or olives. Because this wine is so lush, it's a great choice to serve by the glass on it's own.
